IT'S ON AGAIN!!

On Sunday 17 July 2005, the Rail Trail Fun Run will be on again! The hosts of the event, Brisbane Valley Tourism in conjunction with the Esk Shire Council, are excited to acknowledge the two major sponsors for this year's event - 5 Star Supermarkets, who are involved for the second year running, and Wivenhoe Alliance. This year's race is set to start in Lowood and finish in Fernvale where festivities will continue throughout the day.

The Rail Trail course is an 8.3 kilometre track of disused rail corridor, meandering through the picturesque Brisbane Valley. The trail is equally ideal for amateurs, professional athletes, and parents with strollers alike and being held in the mild Queensland winter, this event is the perfect excuse to enjoy a Sunday morning outdoors.

Race entrants will be placed in the categories that best suit their age, fitness level and ability. These categories include team events, primary and secondary school events, and various individual categories. On offer will be over $3000 in prize money as well as trophies, shields and numerous random prize draws.

In addition to race-related festivities, a program of activities is also scheduled to cater for the whole family. Whether you walk it, run it or just cheer others on, the 3rd annual Rail Trail Fun Run is sure to be an exciting day out for the whole family.

Importantly, as this year's Rail Trail Fun Run occurs during national Diabetes Week, $1 from every race entry will be donated to Diabetes Australia Queensland in their quest to help children living with Type 1 Diabetes.

Anyone who wears last year's t-shirt on the day will receive a FREE Gatorade!!

WALK OR RUN, THE AIM OF THE DAY IS FAMILY FUN!!
